Even National GOP Wants No Part of Spicer

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Opposition to Winthrop Rockefeller collapsed today and Arkansas Republicans decided to nominate him for president as a favorite son at the GOP National Convention.

The action came at a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee at which William Spicer of Fort Smith, the party chief man and a critic of Rockefeller, suffered a series of defeats.

First Mrs. Sue Jameson of Magnolia withdrew as a candidate for national committee-woman leaving the field clear for Mrs. Frank McGillicuddy of Little Rock, who is supported by Rockefeller.

Mrs. Jameson has been national committee-woman since 1961 and she had the support of state party Chairman William Spicer.

But Spicer—who has been feuding with Rockefeller since last August—was having trouble getting committee approval of any of his positions.

All of the motions favored by Spicer were defeated in the early part of the meeting, even one asking for a 10-minute recess. Spicer responded by declaring the recess anyhow.

The Rockefeller forces pushed through a motion to elect four delegates at large to the Republican National Convention by nomination from the floor.

Spicer attempted, following precedent, to have the nominations made by a committee. He even tried to name Rockefeller to the committee.

Rockefeller declined the nomination and Marion Farmer, one of the four men Rockefeller recently hired to work for the party, made a successful motion to nominate from the floor.

Bob Faulkner of Fayetteville, chairman of the Arkansas Young Republicans, incorporated into the motion approval of eight national convention delegates already nominated in the four congressional districts by district committees.

These were James Grimes of Jonesboro and Guy Newcomb of Osceola in the 1st District; Wayne Babbitt of North Little Rock and Howard Vance of Sedgewick in the 2nd; Cy Carney Jr. of Fayetteville and Clyde Hyatt of Charleston in the 3rd and Warren Liebong of Pine Bluff and Bill Poynter of Texarkana in the 4th.

Spicer even had some trouble getting the meeting to come to order. It was about five minutes after he rapped for attention before everyone stopped talking.

Spicer started by trying to designate Wallace Townsend of Little Rock as chairman of his Delegate Nomination Committee. Townsend declined and said he would serve on the committee.

Spicer then named Rockefeller to the committee. Rockefeller said he didn't feel he should

Berserk Man Shoots 7 in Nassau

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—A man with a shotgun rampaged through Nassau's southern suburbs Wednesday night killing seven persons—including himself—and wounding six in a two-hour automobile tory.

"It was one of the worst nights in my experience," said Chief Criminal Investigator Stanley Moir.

Dozens of police, who had cordoned off a two-square-mile area and searched it in vain for the slayer, found Ruben Rolle, 30, in his home, dead of shotgun wounds. The weapon lay nearby.

Police Commissioner Nigel Morris said authorities did not establish a motive immediately but "the first person he shot was his wife."

Police said Rolle went berserk, took a friend's automobile and roared through South Nassau, leaving a wake of bodies, and terrified telephone callers beseeching police help.

All those slain except Mrs. Rolle were neighbors. Police hoped some would be able to give them an inkling of what touched off the shootings.

The bloody shooting spree indirectly brought about one additional death. Alfred Ginton, a resident who went to the aid of wounded victims, dropped dead apparently from a heart attack induced by excitement.

Rolle, a carpenter, and all his victims were Negroes.

Final Rites for Don B. Mitchell

Funeral services for Don B. Mitchell of Prescott, will be Friday at 2:30 p.m. at Prescott First Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Louise Wren Mitchell, two children of the home, Lonnie George and Donna Lynn, his father, George Y. Mitchell of Spanish Forks, Utah, one brother, Ted Mitchell of San Antonio, Texas.

Five sisters, Mrs. Lula Evans of Greenfield, Utah, Mrs. Eleanor Ihnen of Bakersfield, Calif., Mrs. Genevieve Shepherd of Mesa, Arizona, Mrs. Marian Hansen of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mrs. Clara Perry of Rexburg, Idaho.

Burial will be in De Ann cemetery at Prescott under the direction of Cornish Mortuary of Prescott.

Teacher Firing Is Challenged

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A patron of schools at Cutler-Morning Star challenged Wednesday the firing of a science teacher.

Edwin Pund, 42, was not accepted for another term at the high school.

Clarence Rowe, president of the school board, said Pund was released because he could not maintain classroom discipline, nor get along with other teachers.

L. R. Brumley, father of three pupils in the school system asked why Rowe "has now felt it necessary to say that the reference to the Bible did not figure in the dismissal of Mr. Pund when this was the reason stated by four other members of the board in a public meeting."

He said the meeting was May 11.

Harris Is Sentenced to Death

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP)—Frank Harris, still protesting his innocence in the slaying of a family of six was sentenced today to die in the electric chair July 13.

His attorney, Bon McCourtney of Jonesboro, filed notice of appeal to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Harris, 51, was convicted of first degree murder May 7 for the slaying of Mrs. Leonard Dever and four of her daughters last Dec. 20. The jury did not recommend a life sentence, making the death penalty mandatory.

Harris already had been convicted of the slaying of Dever and sentenced to life in prison.

Two surviving Dever children said a man came to their home, shot their parents while trying to rob them, then set fire to the house, killing the girls.

Judge John Mosby asked Harris before sentencing if he had anything to say.

"I haven't killed anyone, any time, any place, any where," Harris said. "The State of Arkansas has very little to go on. Thank you."

"Mr. Harris, that was all submitted to the jury and they rendered their verdict," the judge said.

"Thank you," said Harris. He stood, his hands on a table, his arms shaking periodically. His voice was steady.

"You are charged with five of the most heinous, reprehensible crimes ever perpetrated in Prescott county," Mosby said. "It is the order and judgement of this court that the sheriff shall convey you immediately to the state penitentiary and you shall be confined until July 13, when you shall be put to death by electrocution. May God have mercy on your soul."

Harris' wife and three children, who were sitting in the courtroom, wiped away tears.

"This still doesn't make me having killed anybody," Harris said. "Captain Dan (Dan Stephens, prison superintendent) can't put that left shoe on the right foot."

The execution probably will be postponed to allow time for the appeal. The defense tried to show that Dever killed his wife, set fire to the house near Trumann and killed himself.

No Reports of Any Action Inside Cuba

By BEN F. MEYER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The long-promised attack on Communist Cuba by the Revolutionary Junta, an exile group, appeared today to be something for the future—or a well-kept secret.

The junta, at the end of Cuba's May 20 independence anniversary on which it planned to have men fighting in Cuba, issued a statement which did not mention any attacks by its forces.

Rogelio Cisneros, chief in exile of the junta, told reporters one of the organization's objectives—harassing the Fidel Castro dictatorship—had been achieved. "Especially from the point of view of psychological warfare."

A Havana dispatch said the military had been placed on alert, with all leaves canceled.

"The threats of attack have served a magnificent purpose in forcing extraordinary measures upon the Castro regime and doubtless producing widespread unrest and chaos in the already-floundering Cuban economy," said another exile leader.

There was a flurry of rumors about sabotage and minor forays by junta forces led by Manuel Ray. But the Havana regime's radio confirmed none of them. Exiles recalled, however, that it took Havana radio 15 hours to confirm last week's attack on a sugar mill by an exile group.

The junta's statement appealed to all Cuban exiles to help the fight to overthrow Castro.

"Popular victory does not come in the form of spectacular invasion," it added.

No action was announced by two other leading militant forces among the exiles, the Revolutionary Recovery Movement, which attacked the sugar mill, and the forces headed by guerrilla fighter Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo.

Various reports circulated in Miami about events purportedly occurring in Cuba but there was no confirmation from Havana.

Closer Ties Approved by Baptists

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Southern Baptists approved overwhelmingly today creation of a temporary committee to study closer ties with other Baptist groups. A proposal for a permanent committee had been defeated Wednesday.

The approval came on a sanding vote which appeared to be more than 2-1 in favor of the temporary committee, which will report next year.

The Rev. Howard Hovde, Madison, N.J., had urged the Southern Baptists to, in some measure, rectify the action Wednesday which opposed closer cooperation.

"If the action of yesterday were left standing, I would be very deeply grieved," he said.

The Rev. B. D. Vanderslice, Denver, Colo., strongly criticized the proposal and, in a reference to the other Baptist groups, said, "What some of our brethren are obsessed with is not the Gospel as such."

Heated argument erupted Wednesday before the messengers defeated a move for permanent participation in a committee on North American fellowship among the seven Baptist conventions.

Bans Mixed Drinks Sales in Club

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs said Wednesday he banned the sale of mixed drinks in the Black Orchid club here because of a fight complaint and other law violations.

Police Chief John Erney, at Dobbs' order, halted the sale Tuesday.

Dobbs said he would stop such sales at other clubs "where complaints of fighting are received or where questionable characters are permitted to hang out."

Sale of mixed drinks is illegal in Arkansas.

Municipal Judge Robert Ridgeway said he fined a man $250 last week in connection with a fight at the Black Orchid.

Adlai Tells UN America Aids Attacked Lands

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson pledged today that the United States will continue to defend southeast Asia against Communist attacks as long as the people of the area are determined to preserve their independence.

Th chief U.S. delegate charged that the clear aim of the Indo-Chinese Communist party and the Communist leadership of Viet Nam "is to take over control of all Indochina."

Stevenson, who rushed back Wednesday from a European tour, told the U.N. Security Council that the United States has consistently come to the aid of peoples attacked from the outside.

And it will do so again, he said. "Unless the lesson is learned once and for all by all aggressors that armed aggression does not pay—that it no longer works—that it will not be tolerated."

He asserted that the crisis in southeast Asia "has taken a turn for the worse."

"My government takes a very grave view of these events," he added. "Those who are responsible have set foot upon an exceedingly dangerous path."

The council debate originally was sparked by a Cambodian charge that the United States and South Viet Nam had committed aggression in recent border incidents. Both the United States and Viet Nam replied that the violations were accidental and that they wanted to settle the matter peacefully.

Meanwhile, however, the United States plunged into general exposition of the U.S. policy in all southeast Asia.

Stevenson told the council: "The United States cannot stand by while southeast Asia is over-run by armed aggression. As long as the peoples of that area are determined to preserve their own independence."

and ask for our help in preserving it, we will extend it. This, of course, is the meaning of President Johnson's request a few days ago for additional funds for more economic and military assistance for Vietnam.

"And if anyone has the illusion that my government will abandon the people of Vietnam—or that we shall weary of the burden of support that we are rendering these people—it can only be due to ignorance of the determination and stamina of the American people."

He declared there is a very simple way to restore order in southeast Asia and to bring about the end of the U.S. military aid to South Vietnam.

"Let all foreign troops withdraw from Laos," he said.

"Let all states in that area make the simple decision to leave their neighbors alone. Stop the secret subversion of other people's independence. Stop the clandestine and illegal transit of national frontiers. Stop the export of revolution and the doctrine of violence. Stop the violations of the political agreements reached at Geneva for the future of southeast Asia."

"The people of Viet-Nam want to be left alone."

"The people of Cambodia want to be left alone."

"When their neighbors decide to leave them alone—as they must—there will be no fighting in southeast Asia and no need for American advisers to leave their homes to help these people resist aggression. Any time that decision can be put in enforceable terms, my government will be only too happy to put down the burden that we have been sharing with those determined to preserve their independence. Until such assurances are forthcoming, we shall stand for the independence of free peoples in southeast Asia as we have elsewhere."

Returning to the specific issue of Cambodia, Stevenson offered these three additional suggestions:

—That the council request Cambodia and South Viet Nam to establish a substantial military force on a bilateral basis to observe and patrol the frontier and report to U.N. Secretary General U Thant.

—That the bilateral force be augmented by U.N. observers and possibly placed under U.N. command to provide an impartial third party element "representing the world community."

—That an all U.N.-force be established to patrol the border. This would be more expensive, but if this was proved desirable "the United States will be prepared to contribute."

Stevenson branded as "malicious fairy tales, charges made by the Soviet Union on Tuesday that the United States was organizing military action against the people of the Indochinese Peninsula."

The debate took place against a backdrop of intense diplomatic activity concentrated primarily on halting the Communist drive against the neutralist Laotian government of Prince Souvanna Phouma.

France declared that the only solution of the Laotian crisis is guaranteed neutrality. It urged that neutrality be extended to all southeast Asia, including Vietnam.

In Laos Souvanna threw his entire seven-plane airforce into the battle to maintain the final neutralist foothold on the Plaines Des Jarres.

First Lady Visits Rocky Farmland

JACKSON, Ky. (AP)—The nation's First Lady, displaying her farm background, biked up a rocky eastern Kentucky hollow today to visit a poor mountain family.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, wife of the President, and Arthur Robertson, unemployed father of seven, chatted for more than 30 minutes about tobacco, "taters" and Poland China hogs.

Mrs. Johnson stopped earlier for brief visits with students in one-room schoolhouses at Van Cleve and Malaga. The stops made her more than a half-hour late but she insisted on the visits.

Mrs. Johnson was offered a school bus ride up the narrow trail to the Robertson home but decided to hike the distance—about three-quarters of a mile.

After meeting the family, she chatted privately with them inside the house then toured the stubby farmland with Robertson.

Robertson seemed at ease in the company of Mrs. Johnson, Gov. and Mrs. Edward T. Breathitt and about 100 newsmen. He chatted about everything from his children's fishing hole to his plans for a new tobacco bed.

Robertson's daughter, Judy Ann, 4, presented the First Lady with a small bunch of wildflowers on her arrival. Mrs. Robertson explained they were snake tongue and rooster comb.

When she arrived earlier at Lexington for the tour, Mrs. Johnson carried a pair of black soft leather booties to wear.

The First Lady also took along an American flag that flew over the Capitol as a gift for a one-room school at Lick Branch—one of her first stops. She brought the youngsters in grades one through eight a junior Encyclopedia Britannica as well as seven maps from the National Geographic Society.

In a bright green linen sleeveless dress, with matching jacket, Mrs. Johnson set out from Washington early in a charter plane.

She wore stacked-heel beige shoes on arrival but had the low-heel short boots in a shoe bag for use later.

serve since he was not a voting member of the state committee.

"Will you serve if no one objects?" Spicer asked.

Rockefeller said he would but several objections were quickly raised.

Spicer then added Haskell Jones of Hope and Henry Britt of Hot Springs to the committee before Farmer's motion invalidated the action.

There were two small concessions to harmony. Mrs. McGillicuddy withdrew as a candidate for delegate at large in favor of Mrs. Jameson. Spicer, nominated by Ike Carter of Benton, withdrew "in the interest of harmony."

That left Rockefeller, John Paul Hammerschmidt of Harrison, Mrs. Martha Townsend of Little Rock, Mrs. Jameson and Robin Morris of Mountain Home as nominees.

Rockefeller, Hammerschmidt, Mrs. Jameson and Mrs. Townsend were elected on a motion that the first five names on the list be designated as the delegates at large.

The same procedure was followed in electing alternate delegates at large. The Rockefeller faction nominated Willis Ricketts of Fayetteville, Faulkner, George Andrews and Travis Beeson of Arkadelphia. Ralph Weiser of Magnolia also was nominated.

Ricketts withdrew in favor of Mrs. McGillicuddy and Grimes then moved that the last four names on the list be designated as the alternate delegates.

Spicer apparently realized during the recess that he was beaten. Immediately after the meeting reconvened he said "I'm six foot tall and I weigh 208 pounds and in the interest of party harmony I'm big enough to ask that my name be withdrawn from the list of nominees."

Martin Green of Fort Smith followed Spicer's withdrawal with a motion "in the interest of harmony," to return to the nominating committee system. On a voice vote the motion got a good support of "ayes."

Spicer then called for the "no" votes and for a moment it appeared that the motion had passed.

But as Spicer started to declare that the motion had succeeded, there came a boom of "noes."

Sen. Barry Goldwater's Southern campaign director struck a blow for Rockefeller Wednesday.

Rockefeller, GOP candidate for governor, is opposed by pro-Goldwater elements within the Arkansas party.

John Grenier of Birmingham, Ala., director of the Arizona Senator's drive to round up GOP convention delegates in 12 Southern States, urged that Arkansas delegates go to San Francisco uncommitted.

His statement was a surprise prelude to today's GOP Central Committee meeting, at which the delegates will be selected.

Rockefeller's brother, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, emerged from the Oregon presidential preference primary as a leading contender for the nomination Goldwater seeks.

Grenier said Goldwater forces "emphatically repudiate and deplore any statements made or references made by any leader of the Republican Party in Arkansas tending to be derogatory of Mr. (Winthrop) Rockefeller."

He conferred with Rockefeller in the candidate's offices here, and issued the statement a few hours after William L. Spicer offered to eliminate himself as a delegate-at-large to the GOP convention.

Spicer, GOP state chairman, made the offer as part of a compromise to settle the intra-party rift. He urged Rockefeller to stop a "stop-Goldwater movement" at today's meeting, and use his influence to get pro-Goldwater delegates selected.

Rockefeller replied that "I have not and will not do anything to interfere with the Arkansas delegation in their choice for the presidential nomination."

But Grenier's statement came as "a slap in the face" to Spicer, who was temporarily "too shocked for words."

Later, Spicer, leader of the pro-Goldwater faction of the Arkansas Republican Party, made these remarks to The Associated Press in a telephone interview:

"I just talked to Mr. Grenier on the telephone. He tells me he assumes full responsibility for whatever he's done. He better know what he's doing. His statement is a repudiation of the people who have been working for Goldwater. Not just Bill Spicer, but all of them. I'm coming on down to the central committee meeting, but I don't know what good it will do. I have put in close to two years of hard, concentrated, enthusiastic work for Sen. Goldwater, along with many, many others. Mr. Grenier has badly injured Goldwater's chances in Arkansas. He has undercut and undermined the entire Goldwater organization in Arkansas."

Brooke May Run for Governor

BOSTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke announced today he is a candidate for a second term, but at the same time he didn't rule out the possibility he may run for the Republican nomination for governor.

Brooke, a Negro holds the highest elective state office of any member of his race in the nation.

"I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for attorney general," Brooke said in a statement issued at a news conference.

He added at a news conference that "in the event the delegates at the Republican State Convention consider I can best serve the Republican party and the people of Massachusetts as a candidate for governor, and if there is a stalemate, I would permit my name to be placed in nomination on the second ballot."

Republican state conventions in the past have banned the entry of additional candidates after balloting began. Brooke said he will seek to have that rule dropped at the convention June 19 and 20.

The Republicans already have three announced candidates for the gubernatorial nomination, former Gov. John A. Volpe, Sen. Phillip A. Graham of Hamilton, and Francis C. Perry, a former member of the House from Duxbury.

Dockmen Can Refuse to Load Ships

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A federal appeals court held today that longshoremen cannot be compelled to work ships blacklisted for trading with Communist Cuba.

"Union members need not mount a platform to voice their moral revulsion against Castro," said Chief Judge Simon E. Sobeloff of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court.

If union members deem it appropriate, Sobeloff said in the court's 2-1 opinion, "to express their sentiments by refusing to assist vessel that trades with him, they are at liberty to do so."

"Nothing in our labor laws speaks to the contrary."

The court's action turned down a bid by the National Labor Relations Board seeking to enforce an unfair labor practice decision lodged against the International Longshoremen's Association and its Baltimore local.

The ILA had refused to supply carpenters for the Tulse Hill, a British ship owned by Ocean Shipping Service, Ltd. of Hamilton, Bermuda.

Says Neutrality Only Solution

PARIS (AP)—France declared today the only solution for the crisis in Laos is guaranteed neutrality, and urged this be extended to all Southeast Asia as its only assurance of peace and independence.

Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville told a Cabinet meeting:

"There is no other solution to the problem of Laos than the respect of neutralization guaranteed by the interested powers. A true and sincere solution of neutralization must extend to all of Southeast Asia. It is the sole guarantee of the peace and independence of the states."

In extending the call for neutralization of all Southeast Asia the foreign minister was restating the stand of President Charles de Gaulle, who also contends the only solution for the Vietnamese war is neutralization.

Rain Fails to Halt Viet Nam Missions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Although hampered by the rainy season U.S. and South Vietnamese air force planes are flying more than 1,000 missions a week against the Communist insurgents, analysis of recent action reports showed today.

There were 1,150 sorties against the Viet Cong last week and just under 1,300 the week before that.

It was clear from these reports that the controversial T28, a propeller-driven trainer converted into a fighter-bomber, still is carrying much of the attack load.

Another plane mentioned frequently in the combat summaries is the Skyraider dive bomber, which by late summer will replace the T28 and become the standard attack plane in Viet Nam.

The missions covered a wide range—close fire support for ground units of the Vietnamese army, escort of troop-carrying helicopters, reconnaissance, troop and supply lift and the bombing of Viet Cong encampments.

Last week alone, there were claims of 112 Communist-occupied buildings blasted in guerrilla havens.

Powells Homer Puts Orioles Right at Top

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Boog go Boom!

That might sound like baby talk, but it's carried the Baltimore Orioles into a virtual tie for first place in the American League.

Boog is John Powell, the Orioles' 22-year-old left fielder whose bat has been booming recently. He eluded a two-run homer Wednesday night in Baltimore's 8-3 triumph over Kansas City.

The victory put the Orioles even in games but 27 percentage points behind the Chicago White Sox, who were idle Wednesday.

In his last eight games, Powell has slugged five homers, knocked in 12 runs and has batted at a .435 clip. His surge has raised his average 69 points to .233. His home run total is seven his RBI mark 23.

Baltimore has won six of the eight games and 10 of the last 13.

Powell's two-run homer in the latest victory climaxed a five-run rally in the fifth and helped Milt Pappas to his third straight victory after two defeats.

John Kennedy and Harmon Killebrew also were batting stars in the AL Wednesday. Kennedy smashed two home runs and a single as Washington trounced Detroit 10-3. Killebrew hit his 10th and 11th homers in Minnesota's 7-4 victory over New York. Boston nipped Los Angeles 4-3 in the other game.

In the National League, Los Angeles stopped New York 4-1. St. Louis nosed Chicago 1-0. Pittsburgh eased by Houston 4-3. Milwaukee downed Cincinnati 7-3 and Philadelphia whipped San Francisco 7-2.

Pappas limited the Athletics to five hits while his mates pounded Diego Segui and Jack Aker. Brooks Robinson drove in three runs, two with a double in the fifth when the Orioles chased Segui. The double and Powell's homer were off Aker.

Luis Aparicio stole three bases for the Orioles, giving him 17 in 20 attempts.

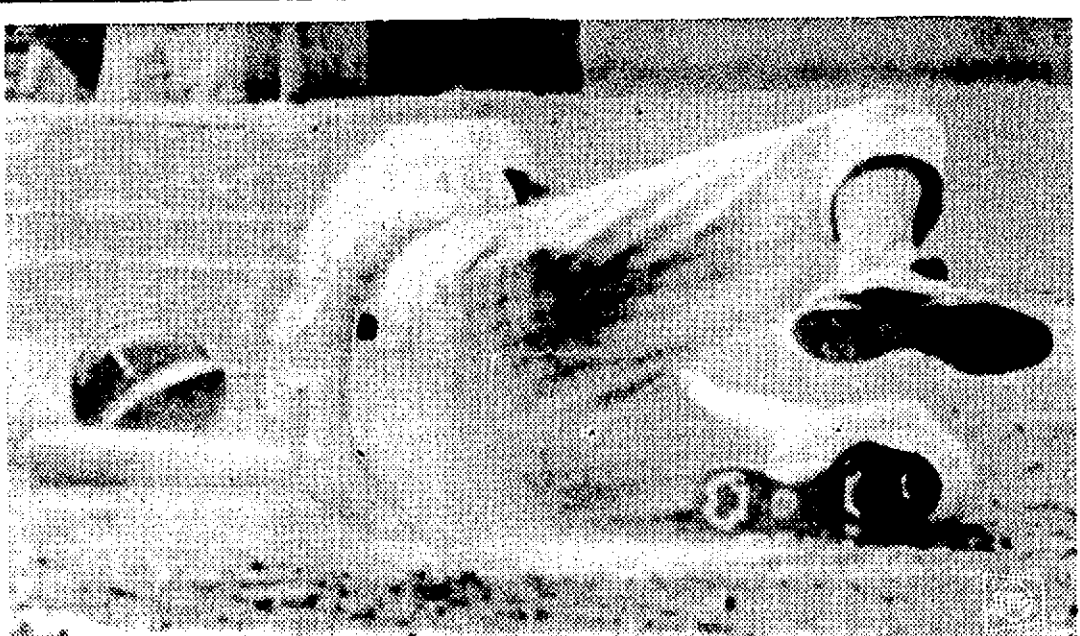

Kennedy's hitting helped halt Detroit's four-game winning streak. He hit a homer in the first and another in the fifth. He singled across a run in the eighth when three Tiger errors helped the Senators to five runs. Dick Phillips contributed two RBI to Washington's attack.

Bill Freehan and George Thomas slammed homers in the seventh for the Tigers off Claude Osteen, who ended his record at 3-3.

Killebrew took the league lead in home runs with his pair. His first blast came with one aboard in the Twins' five-run first inning against Ralph Terry. He connected again in the eighth.

Tony Oliva also eluded a two-run homer in the first, helping Camilo Pascual to his fifth triumph against two defeats. Pascual held the Yankees to two runs until Johnny Blanchard smacked a two-run homer in the ninth.

Boston scored two runs in the seventh for its victory over Los Angeles. Ed Bressoud's single drove in Roman Mejias with the deciding run after Dalton Jones doubled home Bob Till.

SUCCESS—When they start dusting off a player at the plate, it is a certain indication that he is attaining status as a batter. Rookie outfielder Tony Oliva of the Minnesota Twins makes the grade, biting the dust after being hit by a pitch.

Colts Claim Don Larsen on Waiver

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Big Don Larsen, a hero when he pitched a perfect World Series game for the New York Yankees, has moved again. This time for only the $20,000 waiver price.

The San Francisco Giants announced Wednesday they asked waivers on the 34-year-old right-hander and the Houston Colts claimed him.

Larsen hurled the first no-hit, no-run game in World Series history. He beat Brooklyn 2-0 Oct. 3, 1956, and not a Dodger reached base.

Exactly six years later in the same Yankee Stadium, Larsen beat the Yanks in relief while hurling for the Giants in the 1962 series.

He's also pitched for St. Louis, Baltimore, Kansas City and Chicago of the American League.

The release of waivers of Larsen was one of three moves by the Giants. They put pitcher Jim Duffalo on the injured reserve list to recover from a fractured rib and brought southpaw hurler Ken MacKenzie up from their Tacoma farm club.

With the Giants in 1962, Larsen was 5-4 as a reliever and last season was 7-7. So far this season he was 0-1 with a 4.35 earned-run average.

Musial Has Regrets Over College

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If Stan Musial had it to do all over again, he would go to college before he played professional baseball.

Musial said he hated to think what would have happened to him if he had failed to make the grade in baseball. The former St. Louis Cardinal great made these observations and many others in his book "Stan Musial" as told to Bob Broeg, sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The retired star, now director of President Johnson's physical fitness program, revealed how he moved from $65 a month in Class D to a $100,000 a year salary with the Cardinals. He told how he learned a lesson in negotiation when he pointed out to Sam Breadon he would have to "play harder" because Terry Moore and Enos Slaughter were in service in 1943.

Owner Breadon reprimanded him by saying, "I thought you were the kind of ball player who gave you all in every game." The lesson stuck with Musial.

The shock of the trade that sent Enos Slaughter from the Cards to the New York Yankees just before the 1954 season was reviewed. Musial told how he and Slaughter both cried on a street corner.

Stan recalled how he came close to finishing his career with the Pittsburgh Pirates but finally balked at asking the Cards to give him his unconditional release in 1963 just before the trading deadline.

Picking his personal all-star team, Musial rated teammate Red Schoendienst over Jackie Robinson for second base and Pre Wee Reese of the Dodgers over teammate Marty Marion for shortstop. He rated Willie Mays and Joe DiMaggio as the perfect ball players. He last ever saw but called Ted Williams the best hitter of his time. He doubted that anyone would hit .400 again.

Freog caught the spirit of Musial and his enthusiasm for baseball as he wound up the story with a typical Musial quote: "I hope I've given nearly as much as I've gotten from it."

President Theodore Roosevelt established the first U.S. bird refuge in 1903 at Pelican Island, in the Indian River, near Ft. Pierce, Fla.

Mays Hitless for 5th Game Straight

By MIKE RATHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

"It can't go on," said Willie Mays.

He's right. One of these days he's got to get a hit.

Mays made the prediction less than two weeks ago when he was smacking the ball at a .478 clip, but it's just as apt now with Willie struggling to break out of a deep slump that has shriveled his average to .393.

Mays went hitless for the fifth straight game and Juan Marichal had his 12-game victory string snapped Wednesday as the San Francisco Giants lost to Philadelphia 7-2 and tumbled into second place behind the National League-leading Phillies.

Mays' 0-for-3 performance dropped him under the .400 mark for the first time since the opening days of the season and left him with a string of 10 hitless trips to the plate. In the last nine games, Mays is only 3-for-27, a .111 clip that has whacked 85 points off his batting average.

John Callison of the Phillies added to his average with a 5-for-5 performance, stroking a homer and four singles, driving in three runs and scoring twice as the Phillies handed Marichal his first defeat since Aug. 30, 1963, and left the Giant ace with a 6-1 record.

Meanwhile, the St. Louis Cardinals moved to within one game of first place by edging the Chicago Cubs 1-0 behind Bob Gibson's four-hit, 12-strikeout pitching.

Elsewhere, Joe Torre hit a grand-slam homer and drove in five runs in Milwaukee's 7-3 victory over Cincinnati, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the New York Mets 4-1 and Pittsburgh nipped Houston 4-3.

In the American League, Baltimore belted Kansas City 8-3. Minnesota walloped the New York Yankees 7-4. Washington thumped Detroit 10-3 and Boston downed the Los Angeles Angels 4-3. Cleveland and the Chicago White Sox were not scheduled.

The Phillies moved ahead 3-1 in the fifth, chasing Marichal when rookie Richie Allen hit a solo homer and Wes Covington connected with one on Art Mahaffey started for Philadelphia but Jack Baldschun came on in the bottom of the fifth when the Giants had one run in and the bases loaded. A spectacular fielding play by Bobby Wine on Jim Hart's shot up the middle started a threat-ending double-play.

Gibson, now 4-0, retired the last 17 men in order and won his duel with the Cubs' Larry Jackson when consecutive singles by Dick Groat, Ken Boyer and Will White brought in the Cardinal run in the eighth inning. Jackson, 5-3 and a winner against his former teammates, had allowed only five hits before the decisive trio.

Eddie Mathews put the Braves ahead to stay, doubling Frank Bolling home for a 3-2 lead in the seventh. Torre, who singled home a run in the first, put the finishing touches on by hitting his grand slam in the ninth. Frank Robinson hit his seventh homer for the Reds, temporarily tying the game 2-2 in the fourth inning.

Nick Willhite and Ron Peranoski combined on a six-hitter for the Dodgers, Willhite allowing the Mets only one run in the third on two errors sandwiched around Dick Smith's single. That tied the score 1-1. The Dodgers regained the lead in the fourth when Frank Howard walked, took second on a wild pickoff attempt and scored on Doug Camilli's single. A single run eighth put it out of reach.

Bob Veale and Al McBean collaborated on a five-hitter for the Pirates. The Colts scored their three runs with only one hit, Walt Bond hitting a two-run homer in the seventh after an error and the Colts scoring again in the eighth on two walks and an error. Jerry Lynch, playing for the injured Roberto Clemente, homered for Pittsburgh.

Competent observers, including pro managers Gus D'Amato and Gil Cheney, told that Uncle Sam has a first-rate team.

The other nine winners were flyweight Bob Carmody, 25, of Fort Campbell Ky., and Brooklyn; bantamweight Lou Johnson, 25, of Bolling AFB and Portland, Ore.; featherweight Charley Brown, 25, of the Camp Pendleton Marines and Cincinnati; lightweight Ron Harris, 17, of Detroit; light welterweight Charley Ellis, 29, of the Army's Eighth Division and Louisville; welterweight Maurice Priot, 23, of Camp Pendleton and Denver; light middleweight Toby Ginson, 21, of Spokane, Wash.; middleweight Jim Rosette, 26, a Navy aviator from San Diego; and light heavyweight Harley Cooper, 29, of the Office AFB Omaha.

They explained their antic provided a break in the monotony of studying for final exams.

Three Game Pro Playoff Is Proposed

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A New Orleans sportsman whose selling points are warm Southern weather and January television exposure will propose a three-game championship playoff to American Football League owners today.

The proposal will be made by Dave Dixon, a real estate man who is president of the New Orleans Professional Football Club Inc., a group seeking post-season and pre-season games in New Orleans until a pro franchise can be obtained in either the AFL or National Football League.

Dixon was invited by the AFL owners to their meeting to discuss another topic—a plan to have the AFL all-star game in New Orleans in the Sugar Bowl instead of San Diego where it has been established.

Under Dixon's playoff plan the first game would be in the league city that would get it under present rules. The Eastern and Western Division champs now alternate as hosts. The second game—and third if needed—would both be in New Orleans. Dixon discussed the plan Wednesday.

"The addition of New Orleans and Atlanta would balance it five-five and make a Southern January schedule a real possibility," rights brought $926,000 in 1963, of which $450,000 went into the player benefit fund.

Regular season NFL games were sold to television (CBS) for $14.1 million.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced the breakdown on the television income Wednesday at the league's spring meeting.

Insurance benefit also will be increased with each player getting a $20,000 life insurance policy and a $20,000 accidental death policy. Coaches, trainers and equipment men also are included.

Rozelle estimated the winning share in the championship game would be about $7,000 and the losing share about $5,000. Last year the Chicago Bears got just short of $6,000 and the New York Giants about $4,000.

Of the $1.8 million from TV (CBS), $900,000 goes into benefits of which $525,000 is the player pension fund and $375,000 to the pension for coaches and other club employees. The league gets $180,000 and the remaining $720,000 goes into the game pool.

TV Extends Pension Benefits

NEW YORK (AP)—The record $1.8-million television income from the 1964 championship game of the National Football League will extend pension benefits to 110 retired veterans, add coaches, trainers and equipment men to the pension fund, and set up record winning and losing shares.

Judy Garland Hooted in Australia

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —By the time the orchestra played "Over The Rainbow," the audience was hooting and Judy Garland had stalked off stage.

The sour notes didn't end with Miss Garland's concert Wednesday night.

The boxoffice was besieged for refunds today and the head of the Musicians' Union said the Australian orchestra that accompanied the singer had never been so humiliated.

Miss Garland herself commented, "I didn't like it, did you?"

The American singer's travail began when she arrived an hour late. Her manager blamed it on a sore throat. "You're late" and "Have another brandy," hecklers shouted.

Despite some fluffed notes, most of the crowd of 7,000 was with her during the first half of the concert, her only performance in Melbourne. But some didn't appreciate her fidgeting with the microphone cable or her side banter.

"Sing, sing!" and "Get on with it!" a few shouted, and soon the auditorium resounded with slow, prodding clapping.

The audience's mood wasn't improved when Miss Garland took a half-hour intermission. She sang three more songs on her return, but the lyrics were fragmentary and the customers began drifting to the doors.

Miss Garland curtly left without any farewell, letting the orchestra play "Over The Rainbow" her theme—by itself. The musicians departed amid howls.

Miss Garland's manager, Karl Brent, said the audience should have accepted her apology for being late.

Police said the cendor Andrew W. Townsley, 22, sold not only frozen goodies but also alcoholic beverages.

Authorities in nearby District Heights, Md., said they had been hearing about Townsley's dual merchandising role for two weeks.

Crewman Is Killed in Train Wreck

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — At least one crewman was killed and four others were injured early today when 17 cars of a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train carrying inflammatory liquid nitrogen derailed near this Washington suburb and caught fire.

Although a tank car carrying the liquid nitrogen ruptured, a team of 75 to 100 men from 15 fire companies brought the fire under control some two hours after it started.

Traffic on nearby highways, halted at the time the fire broke out, resumed as soon as the danger of the nitrogen catching fire had passed.

A spokesman for the Prince Georges County Police Department said one crewman was dead and that four had been injured, but that only one of the injured was hospitalized.

The Pennsylvania Railroad's office in Philadelphia identified the dead man as H. W. Edwards.

Cause of the crash, which police said occurred about 3:50 a.m., was not immediately known.

Police said they had been advised the liquid nitrogen was combustible only when subjected to extremely heavy pressure.

Wednesday and charged with selling alcoholic beverages to a minor and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was held in jail in lieu of $1,000 bond on both charges.

Feild Raps Wood Nursing Homes Seen

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Several Arkansas Legislative Council members went on a "surprise" investigation of some South Arkansas nursing homes Wednesday, but surprised few persons.

They found, however, room for improvements in the system.

Rep. Talbot Feild of Hempstead County said the existence of wooden nursing home structures was a danger that must be alleviated.

Rep. Chadd Durrett of Union County said frame structures were susceptible to natural hazards—wind, rain and fire.

"Why, overnight," he said, "every patient could be burned up."

The legislators visited six homes at Fordyce Pine Bluff

from being brought back to Arkansas.

Stephens said Arkansas would seek to extradite Garrison to the state.

Garrison told the Albuquerque Tribune that he has peeled and drilled about 500 safes during his career and considers himself the best in the business.

He told of fleeing through Arkansas swamps after his escape, of being bitten by a rattlesnake, and of hitchhiking rides across the country, and hopping freights.

He claimed he stole the whip off a prison water cart.

and England. The homes had a total of 313 patients.

"We need new legislation giving all nursing homes operating in frame structures a cutoff date," Feild said. He mentioned Jan. 1, 1966, as a possible cutoff.

Nursing home owners who operate frame structures could remain licensed by the state if they replace the wooden homes with ones made of brick or concrete blocks.

The probe was supposed to catch operators unaware, but and before the group reached Pine Bluff and England, the operators were aware that the group might be stopping by.

The legislators visited Kilgore Nursing home and Dallas County Nursing Home at Fordyce; Jefferson County Convalescent Home, Kilgore Nursing Home and Blossom (Negro) rest home at Pine Bluff, and the Old Folks Rest Home at England.

The Blossom and old Folks homes are made of wood.

The group said some homes did not have adequate numbers of registered nurses on duty, and some did not have nurses on duty the required number of hours.

Durrett also thought the homes should be limited to one floor.

"If everybody in the state could see this," Feild said, "it would start people to thinking. We've got to have a recap of all the nursing homes in Arkansas in frame structures so we can see where we are."

Also on the tour were Sens. Olin Hendrix of Prescott and Graham Nixon of Conway, and Reps. Kenneth Sulcer of Missis-

Army General Has Silk Wallpaper

DETROIT (AP) —Yes, that's correct. Silk wallpaper adorns the bathroom of an Army general's office.

On the other hand, said Maj. Gen. Alden K. Sibley, the office occupant, the wallpaper cost less than tiling originally planned for the bathroom.

And the bathroom is small—"barely adequate" for the 20 people who use it daily, the general said.

Gen. Sibley's office bathroom and other appurtenances of his Army Mobility Command at suburban Warren came up for congressional review at Washington.

Rep. John J. McFall, D-Calif., raised a question of the general's "exotic taste" in hearing testimony made public Wednesday.

A request for $245,800 for additional modifications to Sibley's headquarters was under consideration.

Other headquarters items mentioned included a lavatory vanity, walnut paneling, vinyl tile, and $2,264 in carpeting to place over the tile.

Gen. Sibley, 53, former Rhodes scholar who holds degrees in theoretical and nuclear physics said there was "absolutely nothing elaborate" about his office.

Mississippi County and Lacy Landers of Saline County.

Youth Is Killed Training Horse

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) — Jimmy Dollins, 15, of Paragould, was killed here Wednesday while training his horse for rodeo calf roping.

Police said the boy had a rope tied to the horn of the saddle on the horse and had the other end of the rope around his waist. He was teaching the horse to walk backwards to keep the rope taut on a lassoed calf, officers said.

The horse bolted, dragging Dollins for eight blocks. He died en route to a Memphis hospital.

Sam Jones Loses His Opponent

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The only opponent to Sam Jones' bid for re-election as land commissioner dropped out of the race Wednesday.

Floyd E. Bradberry, 63, of Searcy, gave notice to the Democratic Party secretary that he was withdrawing. He gave no reason.

Bradberry, a retired dairyman and farmer, was White County Judge for 10 years. He also was a probate clerk. He filed one day before the April 29 deadline.

Says North Race Stand Only Shallow

By DON MCKEE

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Tall, ruddy and Texan, the Rev. Dr. Howard R. Moody—transplanted from the South to an integrated church in New York City's Greenwich Village—believes racial liberalism in the North is mostly skin-deep.

"I just feel that when the chips are down the Northern white man, even though he professes to be liberal, really doesn't react any different than the Southern white," said Moody in an interview.

Moody, 43, has told delegates to the American (northern) Baptist Convention that when the Negro revolution reached into the big cities of the North last summer it caused "the retreat of the white liberal in the North."

The minister practices the liberalism he preaches. He was arrested last summer for kneeling in front of a cement truck in Brooklyn to protest job discrimination.

"The past twelve months have been really revealing," he told a reporter. "It's not saying the North shouldn't care what happens in the South, but our self-righteousness has been exposed."

When civil rights demands tightened in the North, Moody said, it became evident that "there was no great difference in the white Northerner and the white Southerner."

Northern liberals, he said, always were better prepared for "integration in the South than next door up north."

"The Negro is a little bit fed up with the proclamations of the white liberals."

Moody said the white "backlash" to the Negro's drive in the North has set back civil rights efforts.

However, Moody—born in Dallas and educated in Texas, California and at Yale—believes the recognizing of true feelings is a necessary step toward ultimate solution of racial issues.

Addiction to Drugs Up in Africa

By KENNETH L. WHITING

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—An unhappy byproduct of modern civilization—drug addiction—has sharply increased in once-primitive West Africa.

Ghana's Ministry of Health is producing movies to warn the public against narcotics dangers. Production of drugs in Nigeria is growing rapidly. The police seized 4,444 pounds of illicit drugs in 1962 against 517 pounds in 1961.

A Nigerian senator startled Parliament last month by proposing that the government en-instructions and decided the case on a civil rights basis.

Later a jury in the court of Municipal Judge Lawrence Manna convicted 12 defendants who were arrested in the Cadillac agency on charges of trespassing and unlawful assembly. Nine of these defendants additionally were convicted on charges of failure to disperse.

Of 509 demonstrators arrested in the Sheraton-Palace Hotel and various auto agencies demonstrations in March and April, 35 have been convicted and 45 acquitted. Four cases have been dismissed and 14 have pleaded no contest.

courage production of Indian hemp because it was so profitable. When the laughter of his colleagues subsided, the senator explained he thought Indian hemp was used, as indeed it can be, solely for making rope.

Cannabis, a part of the hemp plant, is the main problem.

The World Health Organization opposes the medical use of cannabis preparations. Their production and consumption is illegal in most nations.

But in various places under various names—"if" in Morocco, "bag" in India and Pakistan, "dagga" in South Africa, "marijuana" in North and South America—cannabis preparations are widely known narcotics which affect mind and body.

The growing narcotic traffic, says one authority, is based on newly acquired knowledge of high prices paid overseas for a commodity which requires little effort to produce. A pound of cannabis sold in Nigeria for $168 may bring $2,800 abroad.

Since it need not lead to real addiction, medical authorities say cannabis is not as dangerous as opium or its derivatives or other drugs. But it creates a craving which in time may lead users to crime in order to get money to satisfy the craving.

Scranton to Get Briefing From Johnson

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania gets a secret briefing on world affairs from the Johnson administration today and goes to Capitol Hill to urge Congress to assist poverty-stricken Appalachia.

In between, he sandwiched plans for a luncheon meeting with William E. Miller, Republican national chairman, although Scranton has insisted time and again he is not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Miller called the luncheon meeting "just a friendly get-together."

Also on Scranton's agenda was a breakfast meeting with all Pennsylvania members of Congress and a late afternoon reception arranged by Pennsylvania Republicans.

Scranton was the only witness scheduled this morning by the House Public Works Committee in its investigation of the Johnson administration's $228-million 10-state Appalachia program.

It was at Scranton's request that Johnson added $10 million to the program to help mining regions of Appalachia, which includes West Virginia and parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland, Tennessee, North Carolina, Alabama and Georgia.

Scheduled to brief Scranton in midafternoon were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and John A. McCone, chairman of the Central Intelligence Agency.

President Johnson had offered the world situation briefings to all announced and potential GOP candidates. New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was briefed last week. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon declined the offer. Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and Harold Stassen accepted, but have yet to receive their briefings.

Although he has said he is not a candidate for the nomination, Scranton has stated he would accept a sincere and honest draft.

Detergent Industry in Promises

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—That foam on streams and lakes, the suds that sometimes rise in the lower floors of apartment houses, the froth on the glass of tap water in some crowded suburbs—all may be on the way out.

At least that's what the detergent industry is promising—and putting up $100 million to back its words.

New plants to produce a different detergent base, one that won't retain its foam after it's gone down the drain, are rising across the country.

The industry promises that most detergent makers will have the new substance available early next year, and all by the end of 1965.

Wisconsin and some local communities have passed laws saying that the froth-retaining type can't be sold there any

Leaders Say Rights Votes Are in Sight

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic and Republican leaders claim enough votes are in sight to halt the Southern filibuster and pass the civil rights bill next month.

The optimistic forecast came from Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey, the assistant Democratic leader and floor manager for meaning linear alkylate sulfonate. The one now used is ABS standing for alkyl benzene sulfonate. The difference is that the ABS you're used to doesn't break down readily in sewage treatment plants, or in streams, or in private septic tanks. Hence the objectionable suds where none is wanted.

LAS has a simpler molecular structure, say the experts, that biological action can break down more easily, and thus get rid of that foam which many people rank high on their list of obnoxious water pollutants.

Charles G. Buellman, technical director of the Soap and Detergent Association, said in an interview that all of the industry's raw material suppliers, and some newcomers to the field, have announced plans to build new plants or extensively modify existing ones for production of the LAS type.

The association promises that the housewife will get equally good cleaning performance at no extra cost.

the bill, and Everett M. Dirksen, the Republican leader and chief architect of a package of amendments designed to win over undecided senators.

With the showdown put off until early June, the leadership called on the Senate Appropriations Committee and others to catch up on their big backlog of bills until the civil rights fire-works start again.

The Senate is no longer being called in two hours early, and Saturday sessions may be abandoned.

Humphrey told reporters, "We will most likely file a cloture petition early in June."

"As we see it," the Minnesota added, "we will have enough votes to obtain cloture on the package."

Dirksen, in a separate interview, said he too hopes that once the cloture petition is offered there will be enough votes to limit debate. But, he added, "I must acknowledge the margin will be narrow."

Cloture is a device for choking off debate in the Senate. It requires a two-thirds majority of the senators voting—67 if all 100 are on hand.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Dixie forces fighting the bill, told a reporter: "Pressure is increasing daily on senators to support the bill. Pressure also is increasing for the gag rule."

"I, therefore, make no claim as to being able to beat the gag rule or the bill."

He said the Southerners will keep on fighting, and declared: "Given time, the American people will make their views felt."

One Killed, 5 Hurt in Train Wreck

LANDOVER, Md. (AP)—One man was killed and five others injured early today when two Pennsylvania Railroad locomotives, each pulling a string of freight cars, collided.

An explosion followed by a spectacular fire took place some three hours after the wreck when gas, spewing from a break in a tank car ignited. No one was injured in the blast. The fire was brought quickly under control.

The dead man was identified as Harry Wayne Edwards, 48, Oxford, Md., engineer on a yard locomotive which was shifting a string of 16 cars.

The second train was an 88-car freight, southbound from New York to Washington.

The site of the collision is at the intersection of U.S. Route 50 and State Road 202 in Chevy Chase, Md. The railroad line at that point parallels a four-lane highway leading to nearby Washington, D.C.

Railroad officials said at least 26 freight cars had gone off the rails. At least 15 were piled up at the point of collision.

The whole area was blocked off for a time on account of a break in one reported to be loaded with liquid nitrogen which plics believed might be explosive. The ban was lifted when Army chemical experts advised the chemical can be ignited only under rare conditions.

They've All Heard About That Oliva

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — He's played fewer than 50 major league games. His conversation consists of a few English monosyllables, a smile and a nod of the head.

It is doubtful if he knows a single American League pitcher by name. It wouldn't matter if he did. He calls Vic Power, his roommate "Big Powder." For that matter, his own name is Pedro but he goes under the name of his brother Tony.

But there is hardly anybody in baseball who hasn't heard of young Oliva, the newest batting sensation of the Minnesota Twins, who has been flitting with the .400 mark all season.

"I knew he was a good hitter," said Sam Mele, the Twins' manager, "but I had no idea he had that much power. He hits all kinds of pitches and he hits to all fields. Although he's a left-handed hitter, he's already hit two home runs to left field."

"He could be another Mickey Mantle," said Calvin Griffith, the Twins' president, "and there's no question in my mind that Mantle is the best in the league. The bid can do it all... he can hit, field, run and throw. And he's got a physique that an artist would love to paint."

The 22-year-old rookie is a 6-foot-2, 180-pounder.

Oliva went 1-for-5 Tuesday night and his batting average dropped .391 as the Twins beat the Yankees 7-2 in 13 innings.

"He's very popular with the guys," said Mele. "After leaving the ball park, everybody waits to make sure he gets on the bus before taking off. They don't want to leave him behind."

"He's so wonderfully naive, you got to love him," said Power. "We're playing in Chicago. Tony comes to me and points to Floyd Robinson, the White Sox outfielder, whose name was on the back of his uniform."

"Say, Big," he said to me in Spanish, "is he the first Negro to play in the major leagues?" "Can you imagine that? He thought that was Jackie Robinson."

Decision Goes to Sugar Ray

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, the former world middleweight champion, won a unanimous 10-round decision Tuesday night over Gaylord Barnes of Trenton, N.J.

Robinson, at 44, showed little of his old time prowess. He weighed 162 and Barnes 157.

Faubus to Plant 3 Rows of Cotton

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus will plant three rows of cotton on the Capitol lawn Thursday so that visitors will be able to see how the state's No. 1 crop grows.

The planting is a promotion of the Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation, the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce and the National Cotton Council.

"Many of our visitors have never seen cotton growing," said Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

The "capitol crop" will be planted on the mallwest of the main building.

Decathlon Is Set for Friday

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Athletic Association has announced the schedule of events for the first annual state high school decathlon here Friday and Saturday.

At least two dozen of the state's top track men will compete in the ten events. They begin at 1 p.m. both days.

On Friday the 100-yard dash will be run first, followed by the broad jump, shot put, high jump and 440-yard dash.

The Saturday events are the 120-yd high hurdles, the discus, pole vault, mile run and the hop, skip and jump.

The athlete with the highest total of points wins the meet. A competitor is not scored in less than seven events.

Five flights have been set up for the 24 entrants.

Fought Klan, Now Fighting Paralysis

By RICHARD C. BAYER

LUMBERTON, N.C. (AP) — In 1953 Willard Cole won a Pulitzer Prize for a public crusade against Ku Klux Klan terrorists. Today he is waging a personal battle against partial paralysis.

Cole was editor of the semi-weekly Whiteville News-Reporter when he shared a Pulitzer public service award and other national press citations with W. Horace Carter, editor of the Tabor City Tribune, for three years of courageous campaigning against the KKK. During that period, hooded night riders terrorized the southeastern North Carolina countryside with floggings and cross burnings.

On Christmas Day, 1961, he suffered a stroke that paralyzed his legs and left arm and blocked part of his memory.

"First they thought they would just let me go ahead and kick the bucket," Cole recalled. But after an operation and three months rest he was back at his typewriter.

He still moves and talks slowly. His left arm hangs by his side. But his memory is again sharp.

Last December, Cole left his job as editor of the Lumberton Post and, at 58, started his own semi-weekly — the Robeson County Enterprise.

Recently, he sat in the old store which serves as his office and recalled his war with the KKK.

"Some people thought I was an s.o.b. and some thought I was a pretty smart guy."

"Things started to get pretty hot so I carried a gun every inch of the way. It got so I backed away from anybody who got too close."

"I let the word out around town that my wife had a shotgun and my boy, who was 17 at the time, had a 16-shot carbine."

"I told my son, 'They may get me one of these days, but you just take that carbine and sweep it around in front of the house and don't worry about me.'"

During the Klan's reign of terror in Columbus County, 13 persons, most of them white, were taken from their homes and flogged.

"Integration wasn't an issue at the time," Cole recalled. "They were after the type of person who spent his money on liquor instead of on his family."

Informants from within the ranks of the KKK finally provided police with enough information to make mass arrest. About 80 men, charged variously with kidnapping, as-

McNamara to Report on Viet Nam Trip

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara reports to the House Armed Services Committee today on his trip to South Viet Nam and the tide of the war.

He also faces questions about charges that the use of old sault and conspiracy, were convicted. Prison terms ranged up to six years.

They included former policemen, businessmen, farmers and two National Guard officers, all led by Thomas L. Hamilton, a partly ex-grocer from Leesville, S.C. He got four years.

In the next North Carolina General Assembly a law was passed making it illegal to wear a mask or a hood in public.

propeller-driven planes in Viet Nam caused the deaths of two U.S. pilots.

This was McNamara's second consecutive day of testimony on Capitol Hill about the Viet Nam situation, and he returns Thursday.

McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk, along with foreign aid director David E. Bell and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, testified Tuesday before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

They presented the administration's case for an additional $55 million in military aid and $70 million in economic aid for South Viet Nam.

It was McNamara's finding on his inspection mission to South Viet Nam that prompted President Johnson to ask for the stepped-up aid.

After the closed hearing, Rep. William S. Maillard, R-Calif., said the administration witnesses pictured a "very serious and difficult situation that has deteriorated since last fall." "It is a strange thing," said Rep. Clemente J. Zablocki, D-Wis. "We are told the Viet Cong are losing battles and men but they seem to be winning the war."

Rusk told newsmen, "The Viet Cong have stepped up their efforts to try to take advantage of events in the last few months," a reference to the two coups in South Viet Nam.

Asked if the request for more men and money to help Viet Nam was related to the Communist advances in neighboring Laos, Rusk said, "They are not immediately connected but one has influence on the other."

McNamara said the Viet Cong's terror tactics are being held in check but he again cautioned that the war will be "long, hard and very difficult" but would end successfully.

Pearson May Fall on His Proposal

OTTAWA, Canada (AP) — Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson's Liberal government is going to survive or fall soon on its proposal to give Canada a new maple leaf flag as part of its program to end the separatist movement in French-speaking Canada.

Pearson told the House of Commons Tuesday night he soon would have a Cabinet decision on the new flag's design to submit to the House and would stand on it as a matter of policy.

"I would make it quite clear," said Pearson, "that when the government submits to Parliament a matter of policy—and this is certainly a matter of policy—the government must stand or fall on the result of the decision of the House."

If former Prime Minister John Diefenbaker's Conservatives or other opposition parties oppose the new flag, he said, they could make the issue one of confidence. If the government loses a confidence vote, it must resign and new national elections must be held.

Pearson's 13-month-old government lacks a majority in Commons but has not lost a confidence vote yet.

Pearson also said he hoped "O Canada" could be declared the official national anthem at this session of Parliament. A member of the British commonwealth, Canada has used "God Save the Queen" since it became a dominion in 1867.

Opposition to a new flag is spearheaded by the Royal Canadian Legion of war veterans, whose national convention booted Pearson in Winnipeg last week-end when he announced he was going ahead with his proposal.

The legion planned a barrage of telegrams to every member of Commons demanding that Canada's battle-honored Red Ensign be retained.

The present flag, with the British Union Jack occupying the upper left quadrant of a red field, is unpopular in French-oriented Quebec. Under consideration are three designs for a flag featuring a maple leaf, traditional symbol of Canada.

Hogan Still Good at Game of Golf

HOUSTON (AP) — Ben Hogan shot a three-under par 69 Tuesday to defeat Sam Snead by three strokes in Shell's "Wonderful World of Golf" which will be shown next January on television.

Hogan never missed the fairway, never found a sandtrap, hit all 18 greens and was putting for a birdie or eagle on every hole.

Glaring sunlight has worried people all over the world for thousands of years. Himalayan plateau Tibetans once wore eye screens of woven yak hair. Eskimos have long worn goggles-like shields of bone or wood with thin slits in them to reduce the glare.

Atlantic City lifeguards took part in Armed Services Vision Committee experiments. It was found that the guards who worked without proper sun glasses had their ability to see at night cut at least in half, adding immeasurably to the dangers of night-time driving.

Today, scientifically designed glass lenses are used in Bausch and Lomb's Ray-Ban sun-glasses to protect the eyes from the hazards and discomfort of glare from direct or reflected sunlight. Your eyes are priceless — look after them!

Sabotage Reported in Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuba observed the 62nd anniversary of its independence from Spain today amid reports of sabotage and threats of armed action against the Communist dictatorship of Fidel Castro.

This was the day on which Manuel Ray, Castro's first minister of public works, promised to be fighting in Cuba against his former chief.

From Havana, The Associated Press reported that Cuban armed forces were placed on a state of alert and all military leaves were canceled.

Then the telephone line went dead, not unusual for circuits between Cuba and the United States.

The Miami exile colony was excited over the possibility that Ray, or one of two other groups, would make a raid on Castro's island during the day.

Headquarters of the three groups said only that they still plan to carry guerrilla warfare, sabotage and subversion to their homeland soon.

A shortwave broadcast purporting to originate inside Cuba said this morning that commandos of the anti-Castro Student Directorate, still another exile group, had burned hundreds of acres of sugar cane in eastern Cuba.

The broadcast, monitored in Miami, also reported that saboteurs had burned three taxicabs in Havana and that anti-Castro slogans had been painted on walls in Cuba's capital city.

In Miami, officials of the Student Directorate declined to discuss the broadcast, but a spokesman said the organization would issue a communique later in the day.

Havana radio made no mention of the reported sabotage, but blared defiance to aggressors and announced new preparedness measures, including worker mobilization in Oriente Province, Cuba's largest and easternmost.

Broadcasts monitored in Miami did not mention the armed forces alert and cancellation of military leaves, but the Cuban Ministry of Health called for blood donations for "any emergency."

The Cuban Armed Forces Ministry said that coastal artillery and military jet planes would hold maneuvers along the northwest coast of Cuba.

A spokesman at headquarters of Ray's organization in Miami said: "We are waiting to hear from him in Cuba. We have not heard from him."

Adlai Back for Address to Council

By WILLIAM N. OATI S
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson will deliver an extremely important speech in the UN Security Council Thursday on what the United States considers "the deteriorating situation in Southeast Asia," a US spokesman said today.

Stevenson, the chief US delegate to the United Nations, cut short a tour of Europe and was due in New York this afternoon from London.

The US spokesman said he had been asked to come home by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

US policy in Southeast Asia came under violent attack in the Security Council Tuesday from the Soviet Union. The council was debating a complaint by Cambodia charging the United States with aggression in connection with border crossings by South Vietnamese forces pursuing Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

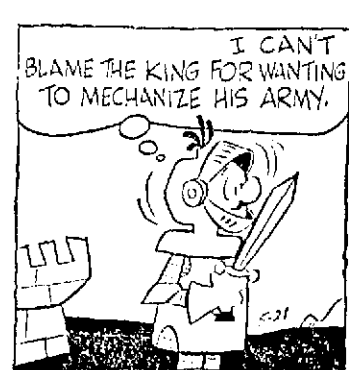

A South Vietnamese spokesman said his government wanted border talks with Cambodia and would welcome UN help in arranging them.

Pham Khanh Rau, charge d'affaires of the South Vietnamese Embassy in Washington, made the statement in an interview.

"You enjoy playing the hero, eh? Well, you almost missed your chance." Clarke stared at Malcolm with the trace of a smile touching his gray lips. "Like Domingo says, it's kind of a waste. It isn't often you find a zombie ready to pull a trigger for you. We planned for you to kill the policeman all along, then bring in the guns during what you could call the ensuing flap. But for a while it looked like we didn't need to. Everything was so cozy and quiet we might have dragged the guns ashore at high noon. But now that honeymoon's over. The guns are standing off the coast a mile north of here, and we've got to kill the policeman before they come in. Because Tani told him what we're up to."

Malcolm turned and stared at him. "How do you know that?" "Because she admitted it. With a bit of persuasion, of course. Little red bathing cap did the job. Simple trick. Only a fool wouldn't trade information for a lungful of air."

Malcolm spoke with an effort. "Where is she?"

"Funny thing," Clarke said, still smiling with satisfaction at Malcolm. She told us everything but where she got the information. At this stage of the game, it wasn't important. But she acted like it was worth more than anything else in the world."

"Where is she?" Malcolm said again.

"She's dead," Clarke said coldly and quietly. "We put her back in her bed. It'll look like a hemorrhage took her while she was sleeping."

"You killed her?" Malcolm sat down slowly on the edge of the bed.

Clarke studied him with interest. "It hurts, eh? Something gets through to you, I guess. She begged for it. Domingo obliged her."

Malcolm began to laugh. "Because she wouldn't tell who told her about the guns—that's why he killed her?"

"That's more your style, that's better," Clarke said. "Treat it like a joke."

Don Fernando sat at his desk, and the light above him pitilessly marked the lines of anxiety in his pale and haggard face.

Malcolm stood facing him with his hands in his pockets. He glanced once at the felt trimmed windows to gauge the progress of dawn, and then stared down at Don Fernando.

"I've been told you were planning to kill someone for Domingo," he said. "Someone you did not know." He smiled indulgently, as if the notion were both amusing and ridiculous. "For no reason at all."

"You were misinformed," Malcolm said. "But I have something to tell you that isn't. The rifles from Ceuta are arriving here at dawn." What had Clarke said? North—it was north.

"They're to come in a mile south of Cartama," Malcolm said. "I know that's true. I heard it from Domingo."

The policeman's stomach suddenly began to ache with pain. "Until I make an investigation. I must ask you to remain here in my office."

"All right."

The policeman stood and put on his cap. He strode resolutely toward the door, wrapping the dignity of his office about him like a cloak against unseen dangers.

Malcolm walked slowly through the damp, heavy sand. He took the automatic from his pocket, made sure there was a round in the chamber, and then walked through the clinging sand.

Domingo stood with three men at the tailgates of the trucks. In a windbreaker and woolen cap, he loomed enormously in the uncertain light of the false dawn.

Malcolm paid no attention to Clarke and Jorge and Zarren. They were dwarfed by Domingo's great bulk; they were insignificant.

Domingo was staring out at the approaching line of boats. He was smiling. Malcolm realized: he could see the shine of his teeth through the black beard, and the tense, exultant light in his eyes.

He stopped 10 feet from him, remembering that Clarke's gun kicked high and to the left.

"Domingo," he said.

The Frenchman turned quickly and frowned at him in surprise and confusion. The light was like a glow of a pearl, and the wind stirred Domingo's beard, and sent the waves charging like white-maned horses at the shore.

"You killed him? You killed the policeman?"

"Our account's settled," Malcolm said, shouting over the gusting winds. "I killed Paco for you, and Coralee. I killed Tani for you. How many murders do you want for a glass of brandy?"

LBJ to Talk at Johnson City

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—City school officials said that President Johnson has accepted an invitation to speak to the graduating class of his alma mater, Johnson City High School on the night of May 29.

Johnson was one of six students graduating from Johnson City High in 1924.

Communists Gain Ground in Laos War

By TONY ESCODA

VIENTIANE, Laos. (AP)—The last positions held by neutralist forces in the Plaine des Jarres region have fallen to the Communists, Premier Souvanna Phouma announced today.

Neutralist Gen. Kong Le abandoned his emergency command post and withdrew further southwest in the face of continuing Communist pressure, a spokesman for Souvanna said.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk urgently recalled Adlai E. Stevenson, the chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations, from a European trip because of the deepening crisis in Southeast Asia.

A government statement said "following massive attacks, prepared well in advance launched by the Lao-Viet—Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese—troops against our neutralist positions in the Plaine des Jarres and Muong Phan, the last neutralist positions existing on the plateau of Xieng Khouang have fallen."

Muong Phan, perched on the western edge of the Plaine des Jarres, was Kong Le's original headquarters site which the Communists took Monday after an offensive over the weekend.

The statement did not pinpoint additional neutralist positions that have fallen. Earlier it was reported that the neutralists were clinging to several positions on the fringes of the plain, including Muong Kheung, the headquarters for Kong Le's armored regiment some 20 miles northwest of Muong Phan.

Kong Le's withdrawal—his second in two days—was not reported caused by a fresh Red attack although two Communist battalions, roughly 800 men, were said to be close behind. It appeared to be that the neutralist general was seeking to avoid a showdown battle.

After the withdrawal from Muong Phan on Monday, Kong Le set up a new command post in a hilltop position at Ban Khong, four miles southwest of Muong Phan.

Western military observers had believed the neutralist position at Ban Khong would be defended.

Africans Are Touring State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Ten agricultural specialists from three African nations are on a tour of Arkansas until June 13.

While in the state they will visit with home demonstration groups 4-H Clubs and agricultural leaders. Among counties on their itinerary are Pulaski, Ashley, Crittenden, Desha, Hempstead, Jefferson, Miller, Mississippi, Monroe, Phillips, Washington, Sebastian and Garland.

The visitors and their counties are Reigel E. Edukugho, F. I. Agi, J. M. Dangana, Ibrahim Gadu, M. Kaura and J. A. Youwa all of Nigeria; S. A. Kawa of Sierra Leone and A. P. Milunga, H. Mhwana and A. B. Mwelondo, all of Tanganyika.

Their trip is being sponsored by the Agriculture Department's Agency for International Development. All are ministers of Agriculture in their countries or hold similar positions.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The problem of playing a recent legend faces talented, Alabama-born Dean Jones.

The actor leaves next month for Madrid and Viet Nam to portray the leading role in "The Tom Dooley Story." It's the best chance of his career, Jones said. "He apparently yet he admits that he was reluctant to take it.

"How do you portray a saint?" he asked.

Indeed, Dooley did appear saint-like, a dedicated Navy doctor who turned his back on the prospect of a prosperous practice at home to return to Laos and try to lend medical assistance. But Jones researched deeper.

"I found out that Dooley was an intensely human being," Jones said. "He apparently tried to hide his altruistic nature behind a flip image. He seemed to be afraid that people would get maudling about him.

"I had worried that he would have turned out to be a one-dimensional character. He isn't that at all."

Jones has read all of Dooley's books. He has seen all the film on Dooley he could find. This includes a "This is Your Life" show, two television documentaries and some Navy footage. "The Navy stuff was the most useful," said Jones, "because it caught him unposed. The camera panned around and there he was treating a woman with bound feet. That gave me a chance to observe the real essence of the man."

President Zachary Taylor died after serving only one year and four months of his term.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Reruns have pretty well taken over the nation's television screens and the 1963-64 season has just about run its course.
The season will be well remembered for the coverage of the terrible events that started when shots rang out in Dallas on Nov. 22.
But it may be a memorable year in TV history for another reason: Negro performers began to turn up frequently in leading, supporting and extra roles in television dramas, and the sponsors began using Negroes in their commercials.
"East Side, West Side," which was canceled after a season, had a young Negro actress as a prominent regular in the cast. One of the teachers in "Mr. Novak's" high school was a Negro and the series was renewed for another season.
Reginald Rose, creator and in charge of scripts for "The Defenders," which has always used Negro performers as principal characters — judges, district attorneys, policemen and defendants — said recently that although the situation had improved enormously in this area, there was still a way to go.
He still did not feel free, he said, "to cast a Negro in a vil-

Blames WR for GOP Troubles

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Tuesday that anti-Rockefeller sentiment in the Republican Party in Arkansas can only be blamed on Winthrop Rockefeller.
Faubus said Rockefeller causes this opposition by trying to swing Arkansas behind his brother, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who seeks the GOP presidential nomination.
The governor said Rockefeller can only get hurt in trying to turn the prevailing sentiment for Goldwater into sentiment for his brother.
Faubus said Rockefeller's "lame" role, and suggested that the Negro's position would be really secure when such a casting job would not draw complaints from the sensitive.
It seems that New York has not lost, after all, the production of two of its five dramatic shows. The series moved to the West Coast after a local union strike shut down production.
Plautus Productions President Herbert Brodsky said on Monday that "The Defenders" would be produced in Hollywood "indefinitely." Tuesday, however, a vice president said both shows would return to New York after shooting one episode each in Hollywood.

Lawn Mower Safety—No. 3

Power lawn-mowers are built for safety and easy use. However, inattention and carelessness can cause accidents. Simple care and attention can prevent them. Protect yourself and others by following these safety steps:

- When starting your mower engine, be very careful to keep your feet well away from the blades.
- NEVER use a power lawn-mower that is not completely safe. Check and tighten all nuts, bolts and screws often to be sure.
- Treat electricity with respect. Never use a plug-in electric mower in the rain or when the grass is wet.
- Fuel can explode. Fill the fuel tank before starting the engine. Never add fuel when the engine is running.

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The body of Louis Baresch III, 24, of Fordyce, was recovered Monday afternoon from Lake Pine Bluff near here. Baresch was reported missing after his rented fishing boat was found Saturday partially sunk and its motor dangling from a chain. He had rented the boat Thursday. Jefferson County authorities said he apparently fell overboard while trying to repair the motor.

American Killed in Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — An American soldier was killed and an American officer wounded in an ambush Tuesday night while on operational patrol 45 miles northwest of Saigon near the Cambodian border.
The officer, a member of the U.S. Army Special Forces, was flown to a hospital in Saigon and was reported in good condition.
The death of the Special Forces enlisted man brought to 132 the number of Americans killed in combat in Viet Nam since late 1961. The total of American deaths since then number 230.

Why is Borden's the milk for children?

Because it's checked for quality 23 times.

Every day, the most accurate tests known to dairy science are made in the Borden's laboratory. On top of that, we taste-test Borden's Milk ourselves, before it's accepted and after it's bottled. All told, there are 23 different tests on every batch of milk! And they're all part of our promise to children: "If it's Borden's, it's got to be good."

"DEAR ABBY"

YOU DID, LADY!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: Could you please tell me if I did wrong? My son had a serious back operation last March. When he started to feel a little better, I brought a large stuffed rabbit (about 22 inches tall) to the hospital thinking it would cheer him up as it was during the Easter season. The rabbit did not look childish in my opinion. My son is 44 years old. He was embarrassed and insisted I take the rabbit home. Do you think this was a babyish gift or not?

LE MARS

Dear Le Mars: Stuffed animals are usually for young children. (Most 44-year-old men prefer live bunnies.) A postoperative patient is in no mood to split his stitches over an Easter rabbit, so don't hold your son's lack of enthusiasm against him.

Dear Abby: What do you think of a mother who would put a diaper on a nine-year-old boy and make him parade around the school yard for punishment for wetting his bed? This lady must be cracked.
LIVES ACROSS THE STREET
Dear Lives: This woman is more than "cracked." She is cruel and ignorant. Bed-wetting is a symptom of an emotional problem, and to humiliate a child for wetting the bed will cure nothing and only compound the problem. I urge you to call on this neighbor (even if you know her slightly) and try to convince her to take her boy to a doctor and to heed his advice.

Dear Abby: I laughed when I read the letter from the woman whose child didn't look anything like her or her husband, which was a constant source of embarrassment to her. I went through the same thing many years ago. My hair was mousy brown and as straight as a poker. My husband's was dark brown—what there was of it. Our son had a head full of red-dish-gold curls. My oil man, who showed up every now and then, had hair exactly the same color as my son's, and he looked more like the boy's father than my own husband. Some stories got back to me that were positively outrageous. I finally had to change oil companies to shut up the neighbors.
COURT STREET, S.C., IOWA

Dear Abby: Is there anything wrong with my girl friend and me meeting two very nice clean boys from school in the movies? All we do is meet them inside and sit with them. We don't hold hands or anything like that. We are 14 and so are the boys.
IMPORTANT QUESTION
Dear Important: There is absolutely nothing wrong with it. If you first get your mothers' approval.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

One Thing in Agreement on Rights Bill

EDITOR'S NOTE — For 11 weeks the Senate has been locked in a debate on the civil rights bill. About the only action has been moves by supporters and opponents to amend the measure. Perhaps lost in the thunder and fury is what the bill, described as the most sweeping civil rights measure since Reconstruction, is designed specifically to do. Beginning today is the first of a three-part series spelling out the bill's provisions and the changes being considered.

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 11 weeks of Senate debate on the civil rights bill have produced agreement so far on only one thing—that the measure must be amended.

At first, the bill's sponsors and administration officials argued that the senate should pass the measure in the same form as it came from the House.

As the weeks have gone by, this position has been eroded. Now Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and the bill's floor managers are supporting a package of amendments.

The biggest push for changes has come from two sources — the 19 Southerners fighting the bill and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

In recent weeks, however, they have centered their fight on the jury trial issue. They demand the bill specify the right of a jury trial for every defendant in criminal contempt actions that arise out of civil rights enforcement suits under the bill. Normally, contempt actions in federal courts are decided solely by the judges.

Dirksen has proposed 70 amendments to meet features of the legislation he considers muddy or objectionable.

After a series of conferences, Dirksen, Kennedy and a bipartisan group of senators reached agreement on the package of amendments. They contended the changes would not injure the bill but would win over some of those who were lukewarm or downright cool to the measure.

Dirksen has proposed numerous technical changes but concentrated his efforts in two areas. In both, his ideas have been incorporated in the compromise amendment package, at least in part.

One of his efforts is to cut back on the government's power to file suits to enforce the bill.

The other is to write into the bill specific language reserving to the states the right to act exclusively for definite time periods where states have laws covering the same subject as some titles in the bill.

So far, despite all the talk of amendments, no change has been made in the bill which cleared the House 290 to 130 on Feb. 10.

As it stands now one of the most controversial provisions is the one dealing with public accommodations.

The House version states that all persons must be given access to specified establishments without regard to race, color, religion or national origin.

Named are hotels and motels — except for small owner-operated establishments with five

April Advance in Business Is Holding

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—First reports on the economy in May show the April advance is being maintained. June might well set new peaks before the start of the anticipated summer slowdown.

And by then people will be thinking less about the business cycle and more about politics, anyway.

The upward pace isn't as fast as in the final weeks in 1963, but the news reports are peppered with advances in particular industries and with even more glowing predictions.

Steel production continues to confound its own industry experts. Output is still on that uphill course that helped pull April's all-inclusive industrial production index to a new high. The steel mills are pouring out tonnage at the highest rate since last June.

The current outlook is that this month's total production will fall short of last May's 11.5 million tons. Still, orders for June are coming in better than expected earlier and the industry now expects to end the first half of 1964 with total output well ahead of its New Year's predictions.

Auto makers are pushing production. And new car buyers are keeping sales high. Detroit, too, is planning for a summer slowdown as it changes over for new models, a more extensive revision this year than last. And it is girding for labor contract bargaining.

Retailers in general report sales holding high. Some chains note marked advances in recent weeks, even if over-all retail figures haven't jumped as quickly as some advocates of the federal income tax cut had predicted.

The increase in consumer credit totals shows the public still in a buying and borrowing mood. And the stepped-up clearing of old debts is considered putting more families in position to start buying soon in greater volume.

The Commerce Department has just revised downward its earlier estimate of the Gross National Product in the first three months of the year. But the optimists even here can point to the causes of the revision as having good points.

The reason for the revision, the department says, is that business inventories didn't climb as fast as first thought, and government spending did not reach the pace earlier indicated. But keeping stocks trim quiets fears of excesses leading to a slump. And government spending is expected to climb later.

Cuba Almost on a Basis of Wartime

By BEN F. MEYER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Refugees from Cuba say the country is on a virtual wartime emergency basis because an exile group announced plans to be fighting on Cuban soil by Wednesday.

Exiles arriving here from Prime Minister Fidel Castro's Communist dictatorship said highways in Cuba were jammed with troop-carrying trucks, tanks and cannon, heading into mountain and coastal areas.

The Castro regime, they said, apparently is taking every possible defensive measure against raids such as that of last week when exile raiders burned a sugar mill in the eastern port of Pilon.

Ramon Espino, one of 48 refugees arriving from Cuba over the weekend, said "invasion jitters have made the Communists desperate."

Widespread arrests of Cubans suspected of anti-Castro leanings were reported by exile sources.

"It appears to be something like the situation which preceded the Bay of Pigs invasion of April 1961," said an anti-Castro leader, quoting underground sources.

The reports led to speculation among refugees that new attacks on the Cuban regime, expected today or Wednesday might be postponed.

Manuel Roy, leader of one anti-Castro action group, recently disappeared from his headquarters in San Juan, P.R., and Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo, a noted guerrilla fighter, has faded

Levy Defeated, Teachers Out

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP)—A packed hearing was told Monday night that 75 teachers from the Vancouver school district are being dismissed because voters in the area defeated a $1.3-million levy proposal twice.

Robert Simpson, assistant superintendent of the school district said the dismissals have nothing to do with the teachers' qualifications.

Secret Mikes in Embassy in Moscow

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. security agents have dug more than 40 secret microphones out of the walls of the American Embassy building in Moscow during the past month and are searching for others which may still be hidden in the building.

Officials are investigating to determine if any important secret information was obtained by the Soviets through the microphone network.

Ambassador Roy D. Kohler has made a formal protest to the Soviet government over the listening devices.

The story of the hidden microphones was disclosed by the State Department Tuesday. A statement by the department's security chief, G. Marvin Gentile, said indications are the devices were "placed in the building prior to its occupancy by the United States" 11 years ago.

The building was assigned to the United States by the Soviet government for use as an embassy in 1952 and was occupied in the spring of 1953.

Officials said that not counting the newly found network, since 1949 more than 130 listening devices of various types were discovered and removed from U.S. Embassy buildings in Moscow and other Eastern European capitals.

They said any information losses which may have occurred through the microphone network were probably limited by "the measures taken for protection against such a possibility."

This apparently referred to the fact that all employees of embassies in Communist countries are warned frequently that their offices and residences may be bugged and are cautioned against discussing secret information where it might be picked up.

The microphones were dug out of the eighth, ninth and 10th floors of the Moscow embassy. It is on these floors that Kohler and his principal aides have their offices. Kohler's is on the ninth floor.

Officials said the Moscow embassy has been checked repeatedly for hidden microphones during the last 11 years. Recently it was decided to make a more exhaustive investigation, using demolition techniques—in other words, tearing up some of the walls. Official information did not make it clear why this decision was reached at this time.

No Other Choice, Governor Says

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Tuesday that Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett had no other choice but to find E. T. Ridgeway ineligible as a candidate for governor.

Bennett ruled that Ridgeway has never been a legal candidate for governor, though Ridgeway has filed his party pledges and paid the $1,500 filing fee.

Ridgeway, of Newport, Ark., and Norfolk Va., said he would contest the decision in court.

"I doubt that I will get the votes he (Ridgeway) would have gotten," Faubus said. "They will go to somebody else."

Memorial Chimes

The chimes in the north tower of Old Main at the University of Arkansas are a memorial to U.A. students who served the nation in wartime.

One exile leader said Ray's pledge to be fighting in Cuba before May 26 "would not lead him into any foolhardy attack if the time is not ripe. Likewise, Gutierrez Menoyo, who has no timetable, would judge the situation by facts, rather than on the basis of emotion. Yet I would not say that attacks either today or tomorrow are out of the question."

Aftershocks Alarming to Alaskans

By JOE RIGERT

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Residents of this shattered city, who showed almost no panic in the Alaska earthquake of March 27, have become tense and apprehensive from a steady series of aftershocks.

Their reactions have not been unusual, said doctors, psychiatrists and a psychologist in an Associated Press survey.

"I think everybody reacted quite calmly and adjusted quite well to the disaster," said Dr. William A. Davis, assistant professor of psychology at Alaska Methodist University. "There has been very little maladaptive or maladjusted behavior."

Private physicians said there has been a moderate to heavy increase in the number of persons complaining of nervous problems.

"The earthquake had a sizable impact emotionally," said Dr. J. R. Langdon, a psychiatrist. "But I suspect it will not prove to have been real bad."

Another psychiatrist, Dr. W.J. Rader, said people "or set other occasion because it was a clear and present danger and they could address themselves to necessities that had to be taken care of."

The earthquake actually helped some emotionally upset persons, said the doctors, because it enabled them to forget the regular imagined personal problems.

There was very little panic in the original quake, they said, because people had no warning probably didn't realize at first how severe it was, did not witness many casualties and were not in large crowds that generate mass terror.

That the aftershocks have been causing acute anxiety was indicated in a survey of 180 residents by Davis' university class. Many said they felt panicky.

The U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey at Fairbanks said it appeared that aftershocks strong enough to be felt could be expected for several weeks.

Langdon said that for some residents the quake was followed by excessive sleeping and

Heat May Trigger Some Rainfall

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Intense heat may trigger a few thundershowers in Arkansas Thursday, the Weather Bureau said today. But only minor changes in the outlook for clear to partly cloudy and hot weather were expected.

The bureau predicted maximum temperatures of 88 to 94 through Thursday, with mild overnight low readings of 56 to 64.

Maximum temperatures Tuesday ranged from 85 at Harrison to 92 at Pine Bluff. Overnight low readings ranged from 56 at Fayetteville to 66 at Pine Bluff today.

Bids Taken on Channel Work

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Pine Bluff Sand & Gravel Co., Pine Bluff, Ark., submitted an apparent low bid of $2463.02 here Tuesday for Missouri River channel stabilization.

The job calls for construction and repair of pile dike and revetment on both banks of the river for 36 miles from Miami Bend to Glasgow Bend, both in Missouri.

Proxy Dispute to Be Investigated

CHICAGO (AP)—U.S. District Judge William J. Campbell ordered Thursday a special master to take a look at dispute proxies in the fight for control of Chicago Mill & Lumber Co.

Kenneth D. McLaren, who served as election commissioner by Campbell's appointment, said earlier this month that the management outpolled the challengers by a margin of 1,958 shares of the 509,265 shares outstanding.

John F. Maher of Houston leads the dissident stockholders. His counsel said more of the disputed proxies belonged to him.

Campbell named Raymond K. Berg, a Chicago attorney, to re-examine the contest and report fatigue. Residents are becoming angry about the impact of the quake, he said, and probably will become depressed this summer or fall if there is lack of progress in solving problems.

DOLLS—for YOUNG and OLD

Little girls aren't the only ones who treasure dolls. Adults do too. Queen Victoria was a very famous doll collector. So was Montezuma II, the last chief of the Aztecs. There are so many collectors in the U.S. that there is a National Doll and Toy Collectors Club.

"Billikin" was the first widely popular American doll, way back in 1908. "Bye-Lo-Baby" made history in 1924, and the Shirley Temple doll became the most popular doll ever in 1934. The first doll with a wardrobe was "Patsy," in 1926.

Today's dolls, such as "Tammy," have exciting collections of clothes and matching accessories—even including a shiny sports-car. Teen-age Tammy's new little sister, "Pepper," is a pert 'n' pint-sized charmer, button-nosed and eight inches tall. Ideal has given her firmly jointed arms and legs, and a turning head.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"With actors like Charles Coburn and Edmund Gwenn gone now, people look to me as a patriarch," said Ernest Truex. "But I don't feel like a patriarch."

For proof, he patted his flat stomach and flexed the muscles of his calf. "Exercise is what does it," he said. "I'm a nut about golf, I love to fish, and I work among my avocado trees. I'm good for a few more years."

So impressed was Universal that the studio wanted Truex to mark his 70 years as an actor by riding a lion. Truex is appearing in "Fluffy," with Tony Randall, Shirley Jones and an evergreen tubby named Zamba. The script called for Truex to demonstrate the lion's gentleness by riding it down a trailer ramp.

"You'll have to get yourselves another boy," said Truex. A stunt man was ordered, and his leg was scraped badly on the work of the trailer.

Truex is known to movie audiences as the fussy, often hen-to him. The company makes wooden shipping containers. It owns timber land in Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

Probe of State School Completed

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—The North Central Association completed Tuesday a three-day investigation to see if two Conway high schools had received serious enough warnings.

The NCA warned the schools in April to eliminate disturbances that hindered effective administration and teaching.

Dr. L. A. Van Dyke, a member of the investigating committee, said its findings would be revealed to the NCA in June at its Chicago meeting.

peaked character of dozens of film comedies. The typing is unfair and unfortunate, since he is one of the theater's most versatile actors.

He relishes telling the story of how his career started. How his doctor-father treated a ham actor stranded in Kansas City. How the ham paid his fee by teaching young Ernest soliloquies from "Hamlet."

"I made my debut in 1894 at the age of 5—the youngest Hamlet in the American theater," he said.

His movie career started 50 years ago. He had been playing on Broadway in "Good Little Devil" with a girl named Mary Pickford. They were offered a chance to make it as a film for Adolf Zukor's new company.

AN-OGNERIAN—Most 37-year-old women are content with crocheting or reading, but Mrs. Leona Lykins of Nashville, Mich., enters wood chopping contests. The winner of this contest held during a spring festival in Vermontville, Mich., cut through a six-inch log in 34 seconds. Mrs. Lykins took considerably more time, but the crowd gave her the biggest hand.

Seniority Foo Has a Remedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—A constitutional amendment that would prevent anyone over 70 from running for Congress is being proposed by a 37-year-old foe of the seniority system.

Rep. Everett G. Burkhalter, D-Calif., whose blast several weeks ago at the oldtimers in control startled his colleagues, follows up today by introducing legislation to retire them.

His bill would limit senators to three 6-year terms, representatives to five 4-year terms—present terms are two years—and declare that no one could be elected after reaching 70.

Burkhalter, the oldest freshman in the House, has already announced he is quitting after one term. He says he is disgusted at being shackled by a system he says requires members to put in 20 or 25 years before they can hope to have much impact on the affairs of Congress.

Refused Command

In April of 1861, Francis Blair Preston representing President Abraham Lincoln, offered Robert E. Lee the command of the Union Army, but Lee declined the honor.

Orchard House, Concord, Mass., now a memorial, was the home of Louisa May Alcott.

Sees Vote as a Protest in the North

By JULES LOH

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The top carnation was turning brown in his lapel, the coffee was cold in the stained cups littering his headquarters, the last echo of elation had died in a hoarse whisper of fatigue, and George C. Wallace's 10-week campaign in the North was, at last, finished.

No one, Wallace included, could know precisely what it meant or where it would all end.

His own estimation was that the votes he got in Wisconsin, Indiana and Maryland demonstrated a reversal of white sympathy in the North for the Negro civil rights movements.

"I have shown," he said late Tuesday night after all the votes were counted and he was reflecting on the race in his strangely quiet motel room, "that sectionalism is not a factor in opposition to the trend of trying to solve everything by federal force."

"It is now evident that a new trend has been established, and it transcends sectional lines."

"This Maryland vote," he said, "should let them know in Washington and in both national parties that they can't get rid of us by calling us bad names. They called me a bigot, a liar, a racist, an agitator, a trespasser. They pictured my supporters with Ku Klux hoods. They called in 10 senators to beat us down, and yet," he said with an air of triumph, "a majority of the white people in Maryland gave me their support. I'm elated. That's far more than I ever expected."

The Alabama governor won about 43 per cent of the vote in the Maryland Democratic presidential primary against Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, favorite-son stand-in for President Johnson. The state's Negro population is 17 per cent.

For one brief moment shortly after the polls closed Wallace sniffed an actual victory.

The first returns showed him leading Brewster—152 to 136 in one district, 194 to 99 in another, then some totals: Wallace 28,000 to 22,000 with 11 per cent of the vote in; Wallace 39,000 to 33,000 with 17 per cent counted.

The victory-inspired levity lasted about 30 minutes. Then it ended, almost abruptly, when an announcement came that with 41 per cent of the vote counted Brewster had pulled ahead.

Wallace was plainly disappointed, even though moments before the polls closed he had outlined once again, with paper and pencil, how it would be impossible for him to get a majority.

Number of Job Seekers Drop

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Employment Security Division said Tuesday that 39,923 were seeking jobs when April ended.

There were 42,696 seeking jobs when March ended, the ESD said.

Increased farm and industrial activity accounted for the placement of 2,773 persons in jobs, it reported.

April benefit payments totaling $1,327,375 went to 13,265 persons.

panied her husband on his campaign swing through Maryland, sat quietly, looking fresh in a white dress with red and blue accents and an orchid corsage on her left shoulder. Later, when the last meeting with cheering supporters was over, she seemed genuinely relieved.

"I'll be glad to get back to Alabama and see the children," she said. "I can't remember the last time I was away for so long."

As for her husband, at this moment fatigued to the point of exhaustion, he clearly longed for more battles to join. But he refused to say what form they might take. One guess was that he will concentrate on expanding his unpledged elector movement, overwhelmingly successful in Alabama, to other Southern states.

Conviction for Murder Is Reversed

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today reversed the first degree murder conviction of Frederick Rush of Fort Smith who was sentenced to life in prison for the shooting of his foster father.

The Supreme Court reversed the conviction and ordered the new trial on three counts — because Rush was not granted a change of venue, because a juror who had discussed the case with a potential witness was not disqualified and because a pistol which was not used in the alleged crime was admitted into evidence.

The state contended that Rush, his cousin, Raymond Wood, and one Carolyn Brown entered into a conspiracy to kill Rush's stepfather, Paul Rush. The elder Rush was fatally shot in the basement of the V&R Sales Co., a family furniture factory in Fort Smith, about 11 p.m. May 13, 1962.

Young Rush was tried first and convicted. In separate trials later Wood and Miss Brown were acquitted.

The Supreme Court said there appeared to be no question that Rush was entitled to a change of venue because of widespread publicity given the case.

It said that juror C. E. Laws told the court on examination that he had discussed the case and that he had an opinion which would take evidence to remove.

"We have found (no case) holding that one is qualified to serve on a jury who has talked with a witness in the case and has formed an opinion that would take evidence to remove," the Supreme Court said in a unanimous opinion by Associate Justice Sam Robinson. "We have at least two cases to the contrary. The (trial) court erred in holding the venireman, Laws, qualified to serve as a juror."

The pistol mentioned in the Supreme Court opinion was one that Carolyn Brown testified she and Wood used for target shooting on a mountain top near Fort Smith on the night that the elder Rush was slain.

"The pistol in question is very heavy for a .22 caliber," Robinson wrote. "It has a nine inch barrel and is rather wicked looking. The very fact that the pistol was admitted in evidence could have had a tendency to confuse the jury, notwithstanding there is no contention on the part of the state that the pistol was used in the killing."

The Supreme Court rejected a defense contention that the jury should have been told that the state's main witness against Rush, Pat Taylor, was considered an accomplice and that under the law her unsupported testimony could not be used to convict Rush.

"The appellant argued that the court should have told the jury that as a matter of law, she was an accomplice," Robinson wrote. "The instruction is not inherently erroneous and appellant (Rush) made no specific objection."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—The Senate subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency is expected to resume its interest in television's "sex and violence" the with new hearings within the next few weeks.

Some of the programs which were under sharp scrutiny, if not attack, during the original hearings four seasons back, are still around in syndicated reruns.

Sexual themes have been prominent this season in many of the so-called "social drama" series—the doctor, psychiatrist, nurse, social worker and even social teacher shows.

Almost all the late-evening dramatic shows have dealt rather frankly with subjects traditionally considered too adult for youthful eyes and ears, and so — occasionally — has an early evening program like "Mr. Novak" obviously scheduled for the family audience.

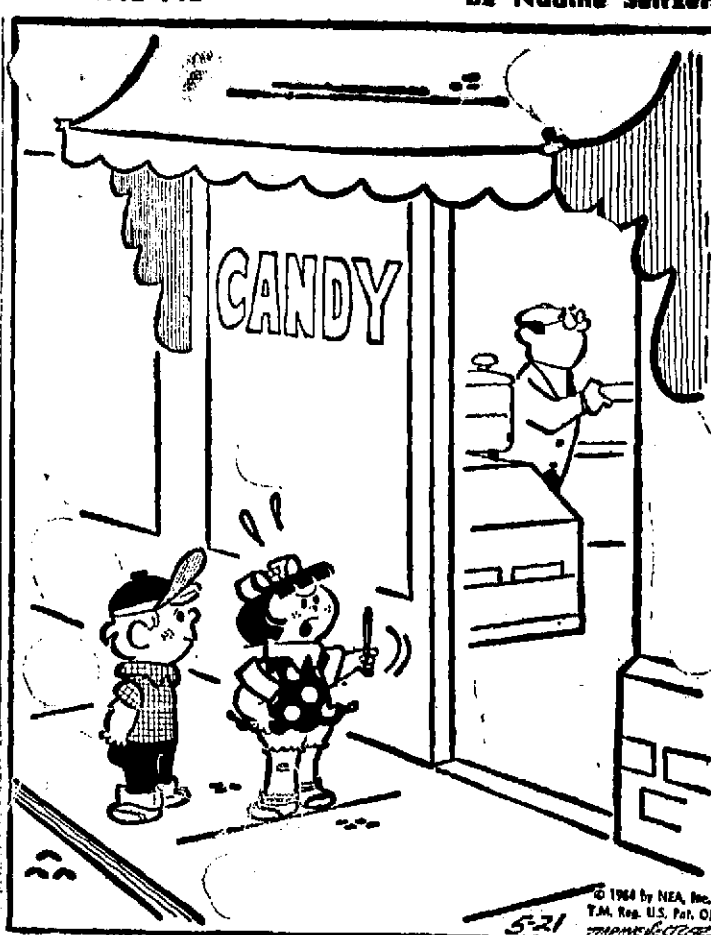

However, it appears to one whose viewing has been fairly concentrated upon this season's output, that the good — or bad — old days when every action-adventure series ended in a long, messy fight in a warehouse are definitely over.

The Emmy Awards pot continues to boil. Today, Herbert Brodtkin, head of the production company that turns out "The Defenders" and "The Nurses" for CBS broadcast, followed network policy by saying he would not attend the awards show, an NBC special on May 25. He added that anyone associated with the production company was free to attend "as an individual."

E. G. Marshall, star of "The Defenders," is under NBC contract to appear as East Coast

Mrs. LBJ's Farm Netted Her $284

BILLINGSLEY, Ala. (AP)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson's farm in Alabama brought her a net profit of only $284.23 last year, the overseer of the property said Tuesday.

Wallace Canterbury, the overseer, said Mrs. Johnson's gross income from the farm in 1963 was $2,463.41 and her expenses $2,179.18.

The farm came into the limelight recently when Reps. David T. Martin, R-Neb., and M. G. Snyder, R-Ky., described the tenants on the Johnson property as impoverished and their homes as tumbledown shacks.

A White House spokesman answered the charge by calling the rental of the homes and plots of land to tenants for only $60 a year a humanitarian gesture on the part of the First Lady.

The overseer added that there are tenants living on the property for whom Mrs. Johnson wants to provide a lifetime home.

Canterbury said he tried to persuade Mrs. Johnson to put the farm in the soil bank when he became manager five years ago. He said she could have realized as much as $5000 annual profit that way.

"But she decided against it because she would have had to displace the tenants and also because of her attitude toward accepting that much government aid," Canterbury said.

The New York State Thruway is the longest toll highway in the United States.

host on the show.

Much more important than Marshall's one-shot appearance, however, is the fact that New York appears to have lost the production of the two television series. Brodtkin said that the move to Hollywood, made when a strike—now settled—RKO New York scenic designers union closed down production, is for "an indefinite period."

"We have no thought of moving back to New York," he said.

Blast Destroys Missile Site

FREDERICK, Okla. (AP)—An explosion and fire destroyed a $5-million Atlas missile site near this southwest Oklahoma town Thursday.

Twenty men, four of the missile crew members of the Air Force, were completing the final phase of a modification program when the evacuation alarm sounded. All escaped without injury.

There was no nuclear device involved in the fire, a spokesman said. Crewmen said they felt only a thump in the control center, separated by blast proof doors from the silo, when the explosion occurred.

It was reported in Washington fire broke out during fueling operations. The Air Force there said an investigating team will probe the mishap.

Appointments Made by Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus named 10 legislators to two different education groups Tuesday.

Names to the Southern Regional Education Board were: Sens. Clifton Wade of Fayetteville and Max Howell of Little Rock, and Reps. Clarke Kinney of St. Francis County, Ben Byrum of Chicot County and L. H. Autrey of Mississippi County.

Faubus named these legislators to the Advisory Council on Public School Elementary and Secondary Education:

Sens. Clarence E. Bell of Parkin and Thomas A. Penn of Black Rock, and Reps. Marion H. Crank of Little River County, Harry B. Colay of Columbia County, and Autrey.

"These are two things Arkansas is very interested in," Faubus said.

Can't Reject Land

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Attorney General's office ruled Monday that the city of Bentonville cannot reject land approved for annexation by the Benton County Court. Assistant Atty. Gen. Beryl Anthony said interest property owners may petition the county court to exclude certain lands. He said the county court could reduce the area of proposed annexation but could not enlarge it.

QUICK 'N' EASY

Recipe of the Month

Most of us discover at an early age the delights of that part of the meal called dessert. And from childhood on, this remains the favorite course to plan, prepare and happily devour! For the budding baker of the family or for your own party menus, here's a sweet dish that takes but minutes to make, yet has all the qualifications of a good dessert. It's good to look at, good to eat—made the easiest way possible with a roll of refrigerated butterscotch nut cookies and canned strawberry pie filling. These two convenience foods are the only ingredients you'll need to create these Strawberry Filled Cookie Tarts. You'll find the crisp nut-studded cookies a pleasant flavor partner for the bright, fruit-fresh berries.

STRAWBERRY FILLED COOKIE TARTS

2 roll refrigerated butterscotch nut cookies

1 can (2 1/4 cups) strawberry pie filling

Cut cookie roll into slices 1/4 inch thick. Arrange in groups of three on ungreased cookie sheets with edges overlapping slightly to form cloverleaves. Bake at 375° for 7 to 9 minutes, until golden brown. Cool one minute before removing.

Place a cookie layer on each plate, add 1/4 cup pie filling and top with second cookie layer. Top with more filling and sweetened whipped cream, if desired. Makes 6 to 8 tarts.
